Operational Related:

1. I have a transportation / tuk tuk rental company. Can I register with Travel Agency category?

Transportation companies/cab services / tuk tuk rentals are not complied with the travel agency category. You need to specify in your business registrations/articles/web sites how you cater to Tourists with travel agency operations.

2. If I don't have any experience in travel agency, how will we operate as a business? What would you suggest?

This is mandatory. You need to hire a qualified staff and operate.

3. What are the requirements will you observe during inspection?

Website, name board, travel agency genuine business operations and knowledge to run the travel agency.

4. Why inspection is necessary?

We receive 90% of complaints against travel agencies. So, we have to check and confirm travel agency operations at the particular address and to ensure the standards and quality of the service (proper knowledge)

5. My business registration name and the Travel Agency name are different. Can I obtain the SLTDA registration for the operating name?

SLTDA issue the registration to the name which is indicated in business registration. You are not allowed to operate the business by a separate name which is not in your business registration. That would be a disadvantage for you also if you participate for promotional events as well.

6. Can I operate any other business operations by my Travel Agency name?

You can do only the travel agency business operations by your travel agency name. Any other business activities which are not related to the travel agency operations, are not allowed to do by the existing business registration name. Otherwise, this will be an issue when you clear Tourism Development Levy 1% upon your business income.

7. What shall be in web site?

All the usual requirements which shall be mentioned in a travel agency web site, to be included. Tour packages., terms and conditions, contact details (address in Sri Lanka etc.) and all the other relevant details.

8. Can I operate the travel agency from overseas?

No. You are required to operate the travel agency operation based in Sri Lanka.

9. What are the qualifications for a travel agent?

- Computer literacy
- Handling tourists
- Knowledge about tourist attraction destinations

- Correct guiding methods
- Translators or knowledge about foreign languages
- Planning & organizing tours
- Realistic tour packages
- Marketing

10. Currently I work as a Tourist Driver/Guide. Can I operate a Travel Agency?

As per the issued code of conduct document, tourist driver/guide is unable to operate any commission-based business (conflict of interest). However, if you wish to start travel agency, you need to submit a separate qualification/ service experience related to the travel agency operation/marketing/business management. We recommend you to recruit a qualified staff related to travel agency operation to keep fulltime at your business. Tour guiding and the Travel Agency operations are two separate operations.

11. Can we operate as a virtual travel agency?

If you operate all the facilities (hotel accommodation, transport etc..) via an online app or booking engine, you need to register with Tourism App category. However, there is no any categorization for virtual travel agency. You need to have a address and office setup at your home.
