Communiqué

In the light of today's developments in Sri Lanka, on behalf of Sri Lanka Tourism and industry stakeholders, I wish to assure overseas tour operator partners and all visitors to the Island that the Ministry of Tourism together with the Tourist Police and other stakeholders has taken steps to ensure the safety of the tourists on the island and to ensure that their trips will continue uninterrupted.

A Police Curfew has been put in place, island wide in order to manage the situation and bring about clam. There will be no interruption to any tourist travel around the Island in spite of the police curfew. We regret the inconvenience caused and assure that we are doing everything possible to ensure the safety and uninterrupted travel of the tourists on the island.

S. Hettiarachchi
Secretary
Ministry of Tourism
